EZRA, a scholar and Jewish Priest was given royal Persian authority to renew the religious practices of Jerusalem. He led exiles home in 428 BC

[The date of Ezra is disputed. Some claim he was before Nehemiah, in 458 BC, others that it was much later, in 398 BC]

Ezra was commanded by the Persian

Emperor to make sure that the Jewish law was being observed fully in Jerusalem and Judah.

The covenant was renewed at a public reading of the law in the square just inside the Water Gate. Also dealt with the problem of mixed marriages.

Water gate was toward the South in the East side.
